APPLESOX OPEN THREE-GAME SERIES WITH BELLINGHAM BELLS

The Wenatchee AppleSox (21-18, 6-6 second half), are in second place in the WCL North Second Half, one game ahead of the Bellingham Bells (21-18, 5-7), and 1.5 games behind the Victoria HarbourCats...the meeting Sat.-Mon. is the first of six between the two teams in the last 15 regular season games...the AppleSox are playing their 18th franchise season (13th in the WCL) and are led by first-year head coach, Kyle Krustangel (21-18) (.538), who has completed two years as the head coach at Yakima Valley College during the NCAA regular season...Krustangel is assisted by Yakima's Cash Ulrich and Riley Drongesen, both in their first seasons.

SOX PUT UP LATE COMEBACK EFFORT, THWARTED IN PIPPINS SWEEP

The Wenatchee AppleSox fell into a 6-0 hole, Friday night at Yakima Valley...the Pippins scored three runs in the first inning on a 2-RBI double and an error in right field...again, Yakima Valley reached McKabe Cottrell (0-2) for runs in the third inning, with three scoring on a bases-loaded double...the AppleSox chipped away in the fifth, sixth, and seventh inning, while Cottrell kept the Pippins at 6 runs through six innings, and Hugh Smith fired a 1-2-3 seventh...after Jack Machtolf got the first AppleSox hit of the night in the fifth (double), Wenatchee got going, with RBI singles from Jack Reisinger and Jacob Prater in the inning...Michael Spellacy and Reisinger drove in two more in the sixth to make it 6-4, and then Jake Taylor delivered an RBI single in the seventh to make it a one-run game...still the AppleSox couldn't complete the comeback as Pippins (now WCL) save leader Connor White retired six-of-seven over two innings for the save, and series sweep...it was the Pippins first all-time sweep of Wenatchee at County Stadium.

TONIGHT'S NOTES

DOMINATING THE NORTH

The AppleSox are 13-5 versus the WCL North Division this season and have won 13 of the last 15 meetings against North teams...Wenatchee hasn't lost a series to a north team since the season-opening sweep at Walla Walla.

ALL GOOD THINGS...

We hate to continue the statement, but yes, all good things do come to an end...tonight, Collin Maier is making his final 2017 start for the Wenatchee AppleSox...with fall ball looming for WSU Baseball (late August), Maier will be shut down for rest after tonight's start...he is currently tied with Yakima's Taylor Dollard and Gresham's Andrew Hansen with five wins, for the WCL lead.

GAME-NOTE JINX

In 16 tries, the AppleSox out-hit their opponents for wins in 2017 (16-0)...in the last two games, Wenatchee has out-hit its opponent and lost...two nights back Wenatchee held Yakima Valley to an opponent-low four hits, and last night, the AppleSox out-hit the Pippins 9-7.

OFFENSE OUT OF A RUT

After the fourth inning last night, the AppleSox team batting average for the series against the Yakima Valley Pippins dropped below .200...that was the team's worst batting average against any WCL opponent this season, in more than one game played...the AppleSox recovered to get the offense momentum into the series with Bellingham...Wenatchee finished 9x24 the rest of the game (.375 average) with five unanswered runs.

NOT GONE, AND NOW FORGOTTEN

The AppleSox are looking to flush the memories of a series with Yakima Valley in which the team couldn't muster a single home run at County Stadium...the AppleSox have only gone homerless in two series this year...both of those series were against the Yakima Valley Pippins...Wenatchee has hit a team-record 27 home runs on the season.
